RANDY GAGE

Int'l Conference on
"Modern Marketing & Business Breakthroughs"
In the New Word

5th Oct. 2017 / Jumeirah Beach Hotel - Dubai

Are You Ready For Your Biggest Breakthrough Yet?

*Are You Looking to Create an Innovative Product?
Struggling to Develop a Breakthrough Marketing Campaign?
Trying to Disrupt an Entire Industry?*

"Then this International Conference is especially Designed for You"

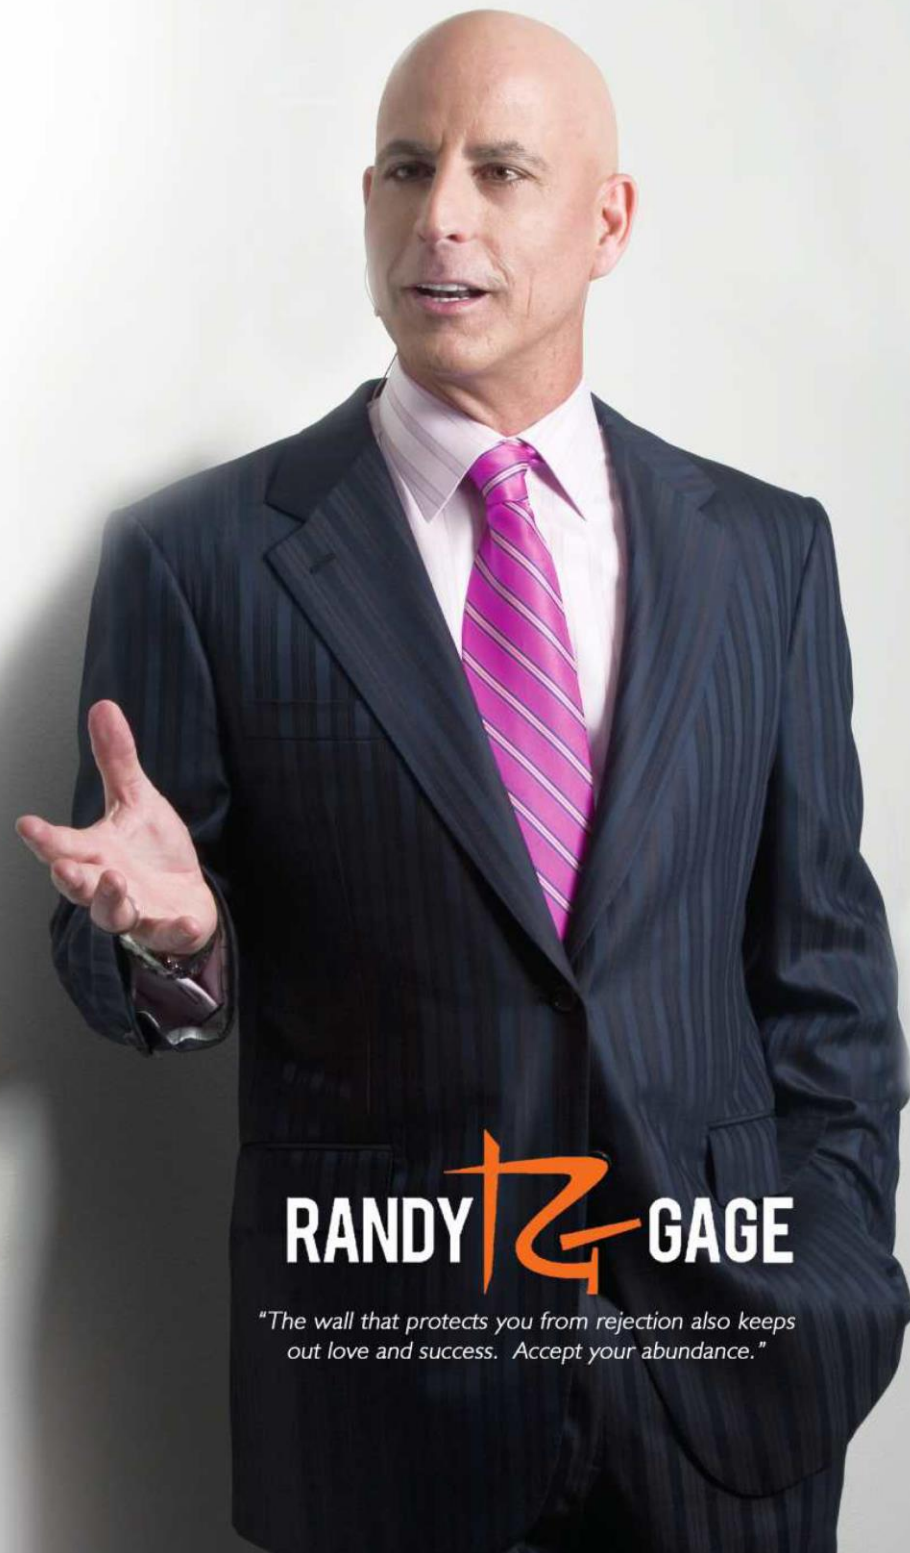

We are now experiencing the most accelerated growth in human history. Between now and the 2025, we will experience cataclysmic disruption in virtually every industry, profession, and business. And each year, the speed of that disruption will increase. The economic model we have operated under for the last fifty years is now eviscerated.

Your organization needs new strategies to succeed in the new reality.

Much of this revolution will come directly from technological advances like virtual reality, cloning, biogenetic engineering and 3D printing. These developments will impact every entrepreneur and business on earth. Millions of jobs will be eliminated, business models will perish, and entire industries will disappear.

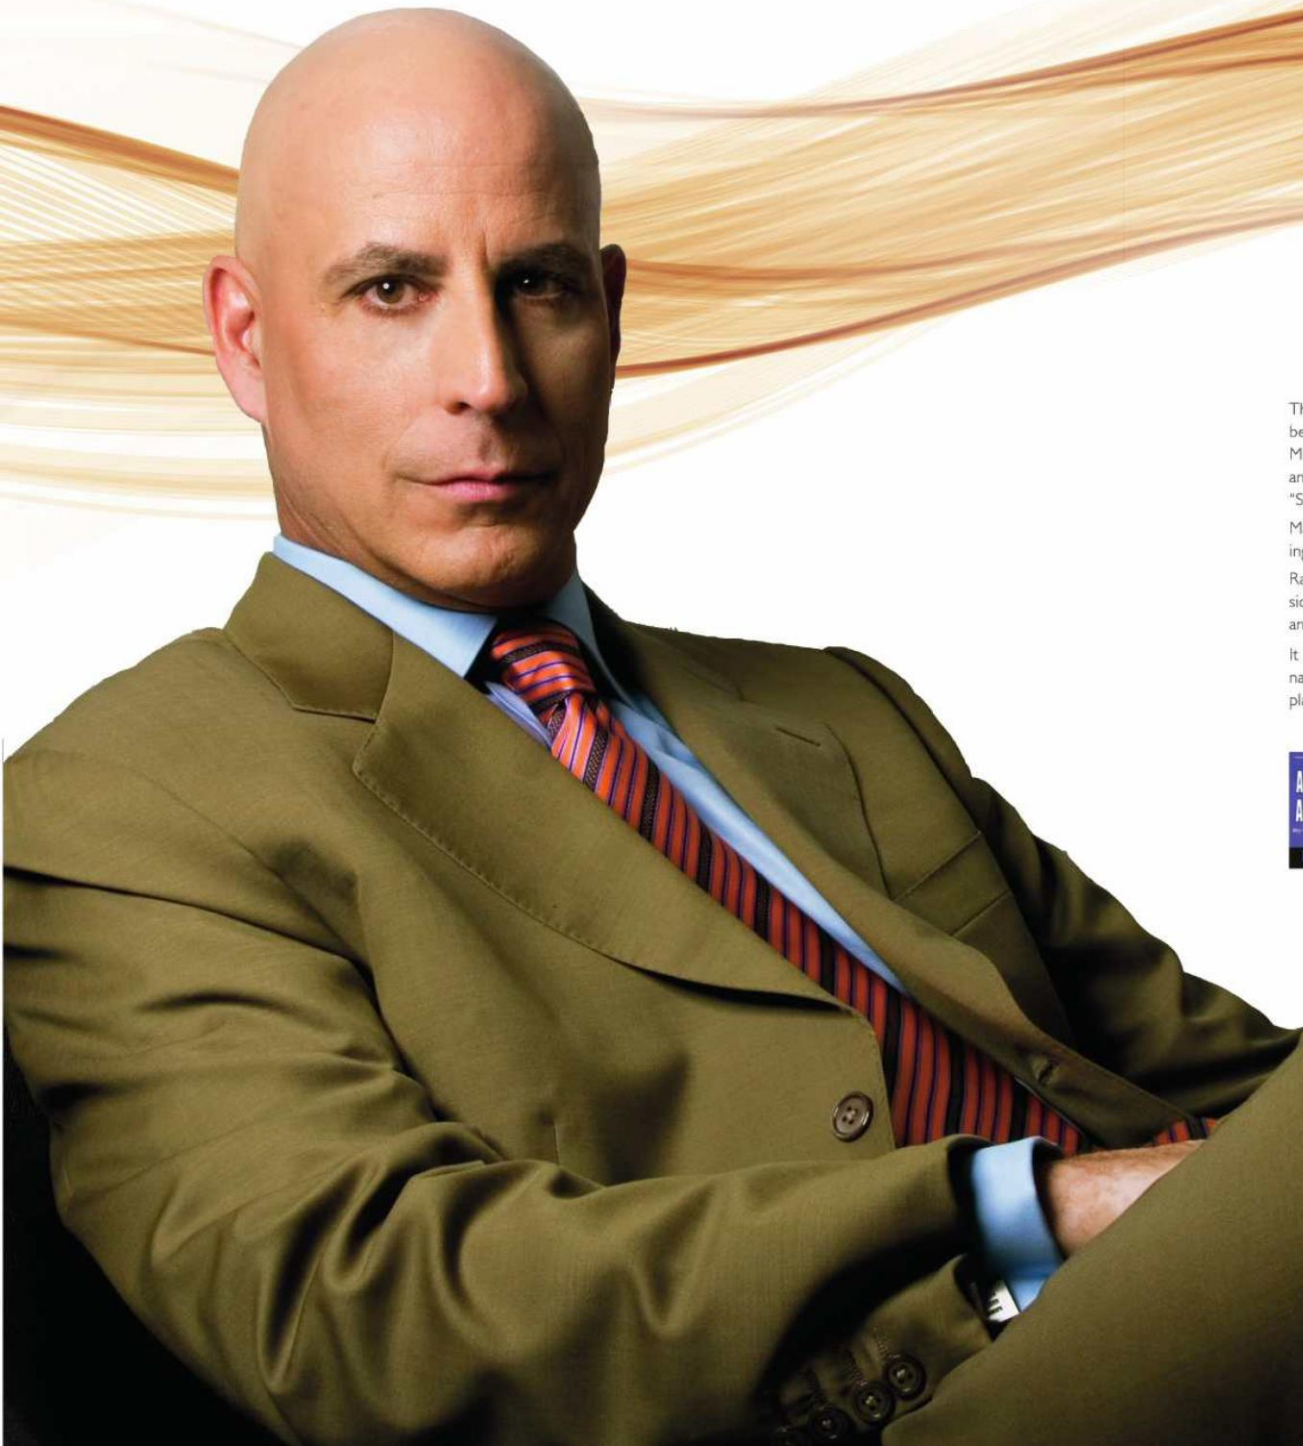

This calamitous transformation is creating new and more daunting challenges—and great opportunities. To survive and succeed in this new reality, you have to become a better critical thinker, and peek around the corner to anticipate needs, respond faster and acknowledge new innovative management skills.

Without doubt many of your required business breakthroughs will be taught at this phenomenal educational conference by the legendary globally-renowned.

RANDY  GAGE

"The wall that protects you from rejection also keeps out love and success. Accept your abundance."

Randy Gage

It is over 25 years that Randy's brash, outspoken, and straight-shooting advice in his thought-provoking seminars is addressing the predominant reasons of doubt, depression, stress and fear amongst managers and is replacing their restraining beliefs to resolute, victorious and functional ones.

RANDY GAGE

"To manifest prosperity, you have to redefine yourself from a recipient to a co-creator. You have to stop looking for opportunities to present themselves and start creating them."

Speech Topics:

1

Session One: Throw Away Your Business Plan

Here Randy will sketch out the realities of the market you will be operating in, and the challenges they present. Because social media, mobile apps, AI, and other developments – make your current business plan completely obsolete.

2

Session Two: Create the Future

In this segment, Randy will teach you how to see around the corner and predict the future. You'll learn how to read trends to project what upcoming challenges your customers will face – and how your organization can become a resource to solve them.

3

Session Three: Alternate Marketing for Success

In this segment, Randy will explore the future of direct selling and network marketing. Why the business model could make sense for you. And if you're in that model, how to better compete with other digital and direct to consumer models.

4

Session Four: Unleashing Entrepreneurialism

How to move the culture in your company from an employee-mindset philosophy, into an entrepreneurial one. You'll discover the secret to fostering creativity, innovation, and productivity in your company. How you get in front of your competitors, gain market share, and boost profits.

RANDY GAGE

"If you refuse to set a bold goal for your financial future, you're really setting a goal anyway: To keep things the way they are."
